

PACT in the Lobby
South Burlington High School
December 6, 2011

Total Number of SBHS Students Taking the Questionnaire: 109

1. Did you know about PACT before today? Check one.

Yes: 82

No: 12

I have heard about PACT but do not know what it is: 15

2. What words come to mind when you think of PACT?

- Parents and kids interacting with each other. Helping each other as well. Helping the community.
- College
- I have no idea what PACT does.
- Talking. Open environment.
- Community, family, friends, speak, celebrate.
- Leadership, students, community.
- Parents and children and teens.
- Parents and community.
- Definitely community service, caring acts, and kind/helpful people. ☺
- Helpful and warm-hearted people helping their community.
- Community.
- Community, connecting.
- Helpful, engaging, compassionate.
- Respect, community.
- Parents!
- Group.
- I don't know. Never heard of it.
- Group mentality.
- Parents and children.
- Teen action.
- Teens, adults solving problems.
- Parent child relationship.
- Please act.
- Public, activity, culture, technology.
- Respect, honesty, communication, help.
- Group.
- Teens making a difference.
- Family, community, dialogue.
- Teens, leadership.

- Megan, Bianca.
- Adults.
- Community service.
- Community, giving, volunteering.
- Group with team community building.
- Parents and Children Together (that was a guess of what it stood for ☺)
- Community.
- People against drugs.
- Nothing.
- Helping.
- Leadership, teens.
- Inclusive.
- Community.
- Community, food, conversation.
- Helpful, respectful, enjoyable.
- Fun, intriguing, a community where you are free to express your ideas and be appreciated.
- Dialogue Night, inspirational.
- Helping, responsive.
- Building community, discussion, welcoming.
- Community, conversation.
- Community, nonprofit, grassroots
- Helpful.
- Community, together.
- Support and fun.
- Parents Teachers Association
- Teens, parents.
- Community.
- Community, leadership, team
- Community, friendship, helpful.
- Community organization.
- Community, helpful, respect.
- Community, togetherness.
- Community.
- Brownies, parents, teens.
- Parents, community, volunteer.
- Community.
- Teen led.
- Leadership.
- Teenager.
- Students and parents.
- Parents, teen, discussion.
- Students, team, community, building foundation.
- Community, parents, teens.

- Community, parents, teens.
- Parents Association Celebrating Teens.
- Parents, teens, teamwork.
- Amazing, appreciative.
- Community, parents and teens, potlucks.
- Community outreach.
- Community and understanding.
- An agreement between two people.
- Celebrating the things teens do.
- Cooperation, dialogue, food. ☺
- Community, dialogue.
- Helpful.
- Parents community celebrating teens, community dialogue.
- Parents and teens connecting.
- Substance free. Parents.
- Community.
- Helpful.
- Community, inviting, open to all.
- Gathering, accomplishing tasks.
- Parents and adults celebrating teens.
- I don't know.
- Community conversation.
- Parents and Adults Celebrating Teens.
- Parents and teachers.
- Community.
- Community, raising money.
- Community.
- Cool.
- Testing, hard.
- Group, Team.
- Celebrating teens.
- Kids, dinner, parents, family.
- A community where everyone is appreciated and everyone's ideas and accomplishments matter.
- A place where teens can talk. Togetherness. Safe.

3. If we told you, "PACT is an organization that listens to teens and allows them to take action within their community," what kind of activities should PACT do to get teens interested?

- Have an assembly.
- Make things more related to their lives, whether they're athletes, musicians, or artists.
- Sport activity.

- Fun activities that they're interested in.
- Give them food.
- Games.
- Maybe campaigning at things like CCS, etc., or making announcements.
- Paintball. Laser tag.
- Pizza parties. Free stuff. Laser tag.
- Certainly volunteering of any sort. Food shelf. Library. Hosting clubs/groups from outside school.
- Sports, games, or maybe a dance. Something just fun so you can be involved.
- Activities involving things that really have to do with the school and that the kids are involved with.
- Involve kids to voice their opinion.
- Bake sales, sports activities.
- After-school meetings at South Burlington, more desserts.
- After-school meetings.
- Game nights.
- Dialogue Night.
- Dialogue, movies.
- Food-oriented stuff.
- Dialogue.
- Advertise showing that you can be with your friends to be part of something that only requires your ideas.
- Have opportunities to partake so students can fit it into their schedules.
- Car washes.
- Fundraisers.
- More screenings like Race to Nowhere, which was great. Food is always a big draw.
- Teen night! For teens only.
- Talk about homework. Kids will really get talking.
- Volunteering at places like Ronald McDonald House or other programs.
- Something like medic tournament.
- Games, like sports maybe.
- Family and school bonding.
- Sports events? If possible.
- Feelings.
- Games. Meetings. Raffles.
- Something that gives teens community service hours.
- Giving back to the community. Food. Fundraisers.
- Helping with sports.
- Maybe a club in the morning before school or during FACE time.
- Video games. Sports.
- Learning about the negatives of drugs.
- Sports.
- Community service.

- Community service.
- Have an assembly.
- Hold meetings after school.
- Volunteer hours.
- Community service for activities.
- Community service!
- Fun activities.
- Look good for college.
- Food-related activities.
- Community service.
- Bingo.
- Bingo.
- Fundraisers.
- Questionnaires, organizing events.
- Camping trip!
- Offer food! You already do! ☺ Advertise and spread the word through students.
- Food, community nights with games/activities to do.
- Fun games, eat food.
- More fun games.
- Movies, info tables.
- Open dialogue, food.
- Games to show how much fun it is.
- Invite teens to join.
- Dances.
- Talking about feelings.
- More talking with students.
- Potluck. Activities at Talent Night.
- Dialogue Night. Guest speakers. Discussion.
- Volunteer opportunities.
- More mindfulness and community service where adults and teens can comment.
- Fundraisers like “medic.”
- Focus on activities that teens like, like sports.
- That is a good question. I’ll e-mail you some.
- Dialogues, SLAM activities.
- College talks. De-Stress. Counseling.
- Dialogue Night was very engaging. Posters. Short, engaging assemblies.
- Posters, sporting events.
- Include activities that are more relatable.
- Mint brownies! Laser tag.
- More active things besides talking – activities that incorporate some ideas.
- Fun stuff.
- Food. ☺ More active activities.
- Charity events.
- Rewards? Activities related to interests.

- Fun activities.
- Exercises to strengthen bonds.
- I thought the skating event went well.
- Community events/school. Making more people aware.
- Games.
- More movie discussions.
- Dialogue Night.
- Organize fun events.
- Potlucks. Community service.
- Technology.
- Something with technology.
- Sports, outdoor activities, club activities.
- Posters, signs, announcements.
- Things that matter to teens and are issues that are present.
- Theatre, sports, community service.
- Organize fun PACT events! And more Potlucks!
- Events like dinners or movies for teens.